Study in Fulda – in the centre of Germany

Central campus square

Fulda University

- 8 academic departments and over 60 study programmes
- 170 professors and 520 academic and support staff
- 9,300 students
- approx. 1,530 international students

The city of Fulda

- Historic city founded in 744 with picturesque old town
- Only 50 minutes by train from Frankfurt
- A high quality of life, good, affordable accommodation and an ideal study environment

Five reasons to study at Fulda University

1. Strong international focus: Three international Bachelor’s programmes, five international Master’s programmes, and a variety of short-term programmes, e.g. the Summer and Winter University.

2. Application orientation: Strong links to business and industry and excellent job opportunities for graduates on the German and global labour markets.

3. Strong research focus: Fulda University is the first university of applied sciences in Germany authorised to award doctoral degrees.

4. Campus university: Everything is within easy reach, students soon find their bearings and it’s easy to make friends and contact staff.

5. Central location: Conveniently located in the heart of Germany, it is just 50 minutes from Frankfurt’s international airport and three hours from Munich and Berlin. With a population of 68,000, Fulda is a peaceful and safe town and a great starting point for exploring the rest of Germany and Europe.

Costs

Tuition fees: no tuition fees for exchange students from partner universities of Fulda University and from universities which would like to enter into a mutual exchange partnership with Fulda University

Students from other universities should contact the International Office for information about fees

Admission requirements

- Good English language skills. Field experience, activities and projects are assisted by an English-speaking tutor, but students need to be aware that German is the usual language of communication with the clients of social work at most of the internship institutions. At the same time in many youth centres and other social work institutions dealing with young people English is often used for communication.

- Students should have completed their first year (or first block of studies) in a Bachelor’s programme in Social Work or a comparable programme.

Special offers for international students

- Orientation Week prior to the start of the course, including a pick-up service at Fulda train station
- Accommodation service for all students from abroad
- Academic and non-academic guidance and counselling, as well as assistance with administrative matters
- Intercultural training

Content

Visits to social work institutions: for students to become familiar with good practice
Project work: facilitating and supporting sustainable development in social work; small scale research projects on ethnic minorities, social inequality, unemployment, or gender
