

1. Semester	2. Semester	3. Semester (Choose 2 out of 3)	4. Semester
HR 1 History and Theory of Human Rights (10 Credits)	HR 3 Legal Argumentation in Human Rights / Institutions and Enforcement (10 Credits)	HR 7/8 Compulsory elective module: (Digital) Communication and Human Rights (10 Credits)	HR 9 Master's Thesis (25 Credits)
HR 4 Social Science Methodology (10 Credits)		HR 7/8 Compulsory elective module: Migration and Human Rights (10 Credits)
HR 2 Human Rights and Social Change (10 Credits)	M 5 Global, Regional and Local Communication and Understanding (10 Credits)	HR 7/8 Compulsory elective module: Human Rights in Business and at Work (10 Credits)
		M 6 Internship / Follow-up (15 Credits)
M 0 Cross Studies (5 Credits)
			HR 10 Exam Preparation Seminar and Oral Examination (5 Credits)

- Module HR 3 Legal Argumentation and Institutions of Enforcement
- Human Rights Critique 2 SWS Claudia Baumann
- Social Change – Struggles of the Future 2 SWS Alissa Starodub
- Fundamental Rights. Methods, Procedures, Institutions 2 SWS Prof. Jörn Reinhard
- Histories of International Human Rights Law 2 SWS Prof. Philip Liste
- Module HR 5 Global, regional and local understanding
- Redefreiheit: Öffentliche Kommunikation im medialen Wandel / Freedom of Speech: Public Communication in the Era of Digitalisation
- 2 SWS Prof. Christine Domke, Prof. Matthias Klemm
- Human Rights and Intercultural Communication 2 SWS Thea Mohr
- Transnational Migration and Development Networks 2 SWS Sascha Krannich
- Communication and Cultural Difference 2 SWS Victoria Showunmi
- Critical Diversity Studies and Human Rights 2 SWS Prof. Carola Bauschke-Urban
- Module HR 10
- Examenskolloquium A 2 SWS Prof. Christine Domke
- At least one course is taken during the course of the program. Usually the Examenskolloquium
- ➔ You can find the courses under “Masterprüfung”
- Examenskolloquium B 2 SWS Prof. Philip Liste
- Module Cross Studies
- The Global South in International Relations 2 SWS Prof. Chaldeans Mensah
- Communicating Violence - Sociological Approaches to the Narration and Translation of Violent Experiences 2 SWS Christina Fischer Natalie Bella
- Additional Courses:
- Fulda Reading Circle: Recent Literature in Human Rights 2 SWS Prof. Philip Liste