

1. Semester	2. Semester	3. Semester (Choose 2 out of 3)	4. Semester
HR 1 History and Theory of Human Rights (10 Credits)	HR 3 Legal Argumentation in Human Rights / Institutions and Enforcement (10 Credits)	HR 7/8 Compulsory elective module: (Digital) Communication and Human Rights (10 Credits)	HR 9 Master's Thesis (25 Credits)
HR 4 Social Science Methodology (10 Credits)		HR 7/8 Compulsory elective module: Migration and Human Rights (10 Credits)
HR 2 Human Rights and Social Change (10 Credits)	M 5 Global, Regional and Local Communication and Understanding (10 Credits)	HR 7/8 Compulsory elective module: Human Rights in Business and at Work (10 Credits)
		M 6 Internship / Follow-up (15 Credits)	HR 10 Exam Preparation Seminar and Oral Examination (5 Credits)
M 0 Cross Studies (5 Credits)

Depending on the term, the following courses are usually being taught in English:

- Communication and Human Rights: 2 hours/week, 3 credits, SS
- Economic, Social and Cultural Rights: 2 hours/week, 3 credits, SS
- European Funding Policies - Proposal and Project Development: 2 hours/week, 3 credits, WS
- Human Rights Perspectives: 2 hours/week, 3 credits, SS
- Transnational Governance: 2 hours/week, 3 credits, SS
- Transnational Migration and Development Networks: 2 hours/week, 3 credits, SS

