

W1554 Employability Shaping
Department code:: IBW 7.2, IBW 7.4		Module name in German: Gestaltung der Beschäftigungsfähigkeit
Workload: 150 hours, made up of: 72 contact hours 78 self-study hours	ECTS credits: 5 ECTS	Semester: 6. or 7. semester: IBW PO 2019 7. semester: IBW PO 2014	Frequency of module: Winter term / Summer term	Duration: 1 semester
Module type: Elective module	Academic level: Bachelor's degree	Suitability of module: Study programmes in the fields of business and economics
1	Learning outcomes: On successfully completing the module, students are able to plan and set out clear goals that are to be achieved from the work experience. They are able to reflect upon and evaluate the work experience and analyze what was learnt in terms of employability. Students develop an initial career plan that evaluates and applies this experience and what you need to do to achieve your goals. Students research, analyze and evaluate the current job market and apply the learning to produce examples of professional communications for future employment. Students work in this module both cooperatively and independently.
2	Module content: The opportunity to develop the employability skills and potential in the bachelor's degree is paramount. In this module, students will be guided through possible career paths and learn to identify employers' needs in a changing job market. The covered topics: 1. Getting to know own strenghts 2. The role of educational factor in shaping employability 3. Personal and psychological aspects of employability 4. Business approach towards employability shaping 5. Labour market and it's impact on eployability 6. Personal development plan
3	Teaching and learning methods: 2 SWS seminar-type tuition 2 SWS practical tutorial
4	Modul language:

	English
5	Pre-requisites for studying this module: required: none recommended: IBW PO 2014: modules from 1 until 4. semester
6	Type of examination: Term paper
7	Assesment methods: graded
8	Requirements for awarding ECTS credits: Student muss pass module examination
9	Other remarks: none